A CARD. YORK CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.

For a reciv to the repeated and unjust attacks upon our methods of instruction we challenge professors of either vocal or instrumental music to produce pupils that, in a critical examination, can exee, if squain, those sitenting this satisfaction. Our excerience has convinced us that music in this country has been very superficially taught, and that many of the "professors" who oppose the Conservatory system would be classed low as Conservatory upils.

The Paris Patrie declares that it has received information that the partisans of the Commune who have taken refuge in London, met on the loth and decided unanimously on publishing a manifesto to the democrats and working classes of Europe, in reply to the bill which the Freach government has just brought in against the International.

The Avenir Militaire says:—"Several journals have stated that the government is about to charge a dealer of Metz to purchase 50,000 horses for the remount of the cavairy and for new regiments of artille y. We, who know well the economical ideas of the government and the wise measure in that some autopted by the President of the Council, can affirm that such a proposal has never been discussed in the Council of Ministers."

The Algeric Francais and other journals of the colony have adopted the following programme, which they think necessary to assure the security of persons and property:—1. A general disarramg of the tribes. 2. Sequestration of the individual and collective property of the chiefs and tribes in theurrection. 3. A progressive increase of the indemnity to the colonists and the war contribution above a sum of ten millions. 4. A rizorous prosecution belore the ordinary criminal tribunals of the leaders

Great preparations were made for the celebration of the fete at Macon. Those of the Swiss who had arrived at the opening ceremony were courteously asked to fire the first shot, and a spuried speech was delivered by one of their number, in acknowledgment of the compliment paid to them. On the arrival of the trains containing the Swiss ridemon a procession was immediately formed, with the band of the Forty-first regiment of French intantry at its nead, and proceeded to the Hotel de Ville, where the ceremony of the distribution of the vind d'homacur took place, and the ridemen received the order for their billets.

BROOKLYN ASSURANCE.

Alleged Fraud on the Church of Our La dy or Detective Folk, of the Brooklyn Central office, on Saturday arrested John Reidy, an insurance agent, residing on third avenue, corner of Twenty-eighth street, South Brookiva, on charge of obtaining money under false pretences. It is alleged that in February last the accused received a sum of money from the paster of the Church of Our Lady of Mercy, from the pastor of the Church of Our Lady of Mercy, Rev. Father Taile, who is now absent in Europe, for the purpose of obtaining insurance policies on the church, parsonage and organ in the Mechanics, Atlantic, Phenix, Nassau, Continental and Moutauk Companies. The insurances were not effected. The nev. Father McGiroy discovered the discrepancy on the part of Mr. Iteldy yesterday, when he called-ut the offices of the companies named and found that there were no policies outstanding to the interest of the church property in question. The acquisely, who is held for examination, says that he can explain the matter to the pastor upon his return home.
